

Audio/Video Recording, Duplication and Distribution Release
For Together for the Gospel 2022

In consideration of my engagement with Together for the Gospel (T4G) to preach/teach at the April 2022 event, I irrevocably grant T4G permission to:

- live-stream/simulcast my talk(s);
- make audio and video recordings (“Recordings”) of all my messages and presentations at the event;
- edit said Recording(s) to provide for free on assigned website(s) (The content will not be edited in any way as to alter its intended meaning);
- produce transcripts of the final Recording(s) for free on assigned website(s) (e.g. transcripts, if created, will be linked to the Recording(s) so users can read along with the talk and search for specific locations); and
- use my name, voice, biographical material, and other information to publicize and promote the Recording(s).

I represent and warrant that I have the full power and authority to enter into this agreement and that this Release does not violate any agreement that I have with any other party; and that the Recording(s) do not contain any libelous, obscene or otherwise unlawful material, nor infringe any copyright, nor violate any person’s right or privacy or publicity. I indemnify T4G from any and all claims, losses, demands, and costs (including reasonable attorney’s fees and costs) arising out of, or in connection with, the breach of any agreement, representation or warranty I have entered into.
